

Chicago Rooters Would See Schaefer's Act---Tech-Central Game Attracts Many

WINDY CITY FANS DEMAND SCHAEFER'S VISIT APPEARANCE THERE

Seek to Have Vaudeville House Sign Him Up Soon.

"JIGGS" DONAHUE IS NOW DOWN AND OUT

Nationals' Old Star Suffering From Nervous Breakdown.

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

Herman Schaefer, the Nationals' first baseman, who appears in a baseball sketch at Chicago's city hall, may make his Chicago appearance in the near future, if his Windy City friends can succeed in obtaining a vaudeville house there to book him. According to dispatches received here today, great efforts will be made to have Schaefer's sketch given in Chicago, the home city of the comedian player.

Schaefer has met with great success upon the stage since the close of the world's series. With Miss Grace Belmont, he is being applauded wildly by audiences who have heard of his great stunts on the diamond, and want to see him in the city. He is confident that he will be here all this week, and there is talk of a reception to be given him by his many friends in Washington before he leaves town.

"Jiggs" Donahue, formerly one of the greatest first basemen in the game, is nearly down and out now, both financially and physically. He has just arrived at his old home in Springfield, Ohio, after being treated at Hot Springs, Ark. He is suffering from nervous breakdown, but is confident that he will be his old self with a month's rest. Friends, however, think he will not last much longer.

Donahue formerly played with the Nationals here, and was one of the most popular players ever identified with the team.

The Baseball Writers' Association will meet in New York, December 12, according to the call issued by the association. Joseph S. Jackson, of this city, this meeting will be held in conjunction with the meeting of the major leagues.

Paddy Livingston, the backstop of the Athletics, may go to Cleveland, if the negotiations now under way go through successfully. Harry Davis, the Naps' new manager, thinks Paddy could strengthen the catching staff.

Mostly of youngsters and Connie Mack is willing to let the veteran go.

Daniel W. Lane, politician and director of the Army A. A. Boston's big fight club, is trying to get control of the Boston National League club.

Johnny Kling, the backstop, Hughie McInnes, retiring treasurer of the Red Sox, and Fred McMurray, the veteran player and manager of the team, are also striving to buy the property.

Hughey Jennings to Remain With Detroit

DETROIT, Nov. 26.—President Navin, of the Detroit baseball club, was asked yesterday if he could put a definite lid upon the recurrent stories that Jennings was to manage New York next year.

He promptly replied: "Jennings will not manage the Yankees in 1912, nor any other team but the Tigers. He is signed under a player's contract, and is on our reserve list, and he is not for sale or exchange."

His contract expires this year and he has not yet signed a new one. When he goes to the leaguer meeting I will take one along. I expect to meet him there, and he will sign up. The only way he can get away from us is to leave organized baseball altogether."

Georgetown Preps Best Y. M. C. A. Yankees

Superiority in tossing baskets won the basketball game between Georgetown Preps and Y. M. C. A. Yankee team for the former by 20 to 12. Good team work was exhibited by both sides, the winners co-operating exceptionally well. Martin, Dalley, and Captain Marum played the fastest game for the Preps, while Rutherford starred at left guard for the Yankees. Rutherford scored the majority of points for the losers, he having made four on field goals and three on fouls.

Martin shot four field goals for the Preps, Dalley played well at center, giving Mason a hard struggle at every turn of the game.

Lehigh Diamond Star To Play With Syracuse

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 26.—James Grenhalgh, of Catawissa, a student at Lehigh University, yesterday signed a contract to play baseball next spring with Syracuse team, of the New York State League. Grenhalgh last year played with the Bethlehem Preparatory School, batting over .300. Last summer he played with the Quakertown team, of the North Penn League.

AGGIES WIN FROM GALLAUDET ELEVEN IN FINAL PERIOD

Thirty-Five-Yard Run by Hofferer Wins Winning Points.

COLLEGE PARK, Nov. 26.—Taking a decided brace in the final ten minutes of play, Maryland Agricultural College defeated Gallaudet by 8 to 2. The last period of the contest was played in semi-darkness, and it was difficult most of the time to see who was carrying the ball or what plays were effected. A spectacular run of thirty-five yards during the last five minutes of play by Hofferer, M. A. C.'s halfback, scored in the only touchdown of the game, he having gone through Gallaudet's entire line for the scores. Goal was kicked by Shipley.

The Aggies received the kick-off and were held for downs after the ball had been advanced to near the center of the field. Gallaudet carried the ball to Aggie's 25-yard line, where it was lost on a fumble. In the next series of plunges Aggies carried the ball to Gallaudet's 40-yard line, where a field goal was tried. Gallaudet blocked the attempted field goal and worked the ball to Aggie's 20-yard line.

Roller opened the second period by driving a field goal that went wild. During the remainder of the period little advantage was gained by either side. Shipley and Kemp effected a forward pass that brought the ball to Gallaudet's 25-yard line. Shipley's attempted field goal went bad.

Gallaudet's two points from a safety game in the third period. Roller had fumbled on a field goal. The ball was fumbled on Aggie's goal line and rolled back of the chalk mark, where an Aggie player fell upon it, scoring two points for Gallaudet.

Aggie's touchdown and goal came in the quarter, when they were held for downs at midfield. Gallaudet forced the ball to Aggie's 30-yard line, where they were held for downs. Shipley punted outside the boundary and the ball went to Gallaudet. A forward pass was attempted, but was intercepted, and the Aggies forced the ball to the 20-yard line. Here Hofferer made his dash through Gallaudet's line for the lone touchdown.

Kramer and Moran to Enter Grind as Team

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Frank Kramer, the short-distance cycling champion of America, yesterday signed to ride in this year's six-day race at Madison Square Garden, December 10 to 16. Kramer started in a six-day race several years ago, but only rode about twelve hours. This time he is going to stick out the entire week and says that he is willing to bet $1,000 that he will be there at the finish, barring an accident. That he is sincere in this declaration is proved by his selection of a team-mate. His partner in the long grind is to be Jimmy Moran, of Boston, one of the greatest six-day racers in the world, the boy who, coupled with Eddie Root, captured first honors in last year's struggle.

Some Central High Football Stars Who May Play Tuesday

SCHOOL PLAY-OFF HAS APPROVAL OF ALL WASHINGTON

Benefit Game to Be Attended by Local Officials and Diplomats.

Tuesday's football game between Technical and Central, the two local high schools that are tied for first position in the scholastic series, promises to be one of the most successful events of its kind ever seen in Washington. From an athletic view and from the standpoint of civic pride, this statement is true, because the competing eleven represent the most capable football material in Washington and because the entire sporting and charitable inclined public is boosting the project in a manner that far exceeds the fondest hopes of its backers.

Since the announcement was made that the proceeds from the game should be given to the Playgrounds Association and Boy Scouts, all Washington has encouraged the proposition. The association is sparing no means to accommodate the crowd that will attend, seating and policing arrangements having been attended to by a committee appointed especially for that purpose. At the recent Georgetown-Virginia game, the crowd became somewhat congested on account of there being but one entrance to the grounds, but better and faster arrangements to handle the public will be in vogue next Tuesday.

Diplomatic and official Washington have stamped the affair with their approval. Tickets are rapidly being disposed of among higher Government officials and many Senators and Representatives that are now gathering for the opening of Congress have purchased tickets. The White House will be represented, and a box will be decorated for the President or whoever attends from the Executive Mansion.

The Secretary of the Navy has ordered out the Marine Band of forty pieces to furnish the center of the field. Returns from the 5,000 tickets which have been put on sale are coming in rapidly. Besides these, many tickets have been sent to substations at each high school where the students only can purchase admittance for 25 cents.

A partial list of the patrons of Tuesday's game follows:

President William H. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Lavinia Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Grant S. Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Dr. William M. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Birney, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Moses, Hon. and Mrs. James Bryce, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gordon-Cumming, Hon. and Mrs. Charles Nagel, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Noyes, Hon. and Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hennick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Parsons, Hon. and Mrs. Henry K. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Slater, Arthur L. Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, Gen. and Mrs. J. Franklin Bell, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Henderson, Hon. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Walcott Tuckermann, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Worthington.

Watch Him Hit.

Gernany Schaefer, the veteran first baseman of the Nationals, is out with a statement that he will be the first baseman of the team next year, no matter what competition he may meet with. "I'm going to show folks how that bag ought to be played next year," says Schaefer, "and Mr. Flynn and Mr. Spencer will have to travel some to put me out of the running. And when it comes to hitting that pill—I'm there, boys, I'm there."

BALTIMORE TEAM IS DEFEATED BY CARLISLE INDIANS

Johns Hopkins Fights Gamely, But Is Defeated by 29 to 6.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 26.—Johns Hopkins football team went down to defeat before the fierce onslaughts of the Carlisle Indians at Homewood, yesterday. Score—Carlisle, 29; Hopkins, 6.

Hopkins fought gamely but ineffectively. From the beginning of the contest the superior weight and finer skill of the Indians made themselves apparent, and though for a time Hopkins successfully defended its goal, it was forced to yield. Afterward the Indians gained as they pleased.

In the early part of the first quarter of play the ball was swept back and forth in the center of the field. Hopkins displaying unexpected ability in breaking through the Indians' interference. They finally succumbed, however, to the incessant hammering of the Indians' backs and the first touchdown from the center of the field seemed to take the heart out of the Black and Blue men.

In the second quarter it was entirely a question as to how much the Indians could pile up. Hopkins played solely on the defensive, and the gains through the Redskins' line were for only minor distances.

Adams Will Marry.

Catcher Jack Adams, who made a hit here with the Cleveland club last season, is to marry Miss Helen L. Stedman, of Cleveland, in a few days. Adams is but twenty years old and President Somers, of the Naps, has had himself appointed guardian to allow the marriage of his youthful backstop.

Will Roll Team OF NORTHEASTERN LEAGUE BOWLERS

Match Will Be Played at Royal Bowling Alleys.

One of the best duckpin matches of the season will probably be seen in the games between a star quint from the Northeastern Duckpin League and the Belmonts of the District Duckpin League. Arrangements have been completed between the two teams to hold the contest at the Royal alleys in New York avenue.

The new duckpin spotting device is in use at the Royal alleys, and for this reason that establishment was selected as the scene of the contest.

Following are the bowlers from the two leagues from which the teams will be selected.

Belmonts—Rider, Hawksworth, Halley, Oliver, Michael and Young.

Northeasterns—J. Loveless, Carroll, Elliott, Ricketts, Oehler, Baum, and Fowler.

A close race is being run in the Carroll Council League for premier honors. The leaders and the tallenders are separated by but four games, and the first two teams have but a margin of one game. Ninas and Santa Marías are leading.

In the Colonial League, the Manhattan are at the head of the procession. Pioneers are six games behind Manhattan, and it is doubtful whether this lead can be overcome. Pilgrims and Knickerbockers are following closely behind Pioneers.

Toledo and Belmonts rolled in the District Duckpin League last night. Best scores were made by the latter, their strings having totaled 491, 528, and 590. Toledo strings total 491, 482 and 518.

Halley is leading the Northeastern Duckpin League with percentage of .117. Bennett, Atlantic, and Hilltops are the three leading teams in the league.

News of the coming tournament to be held in Chicago next March is received with much interest by Washington bowlers. It is understood that 1,284 individual entries will be seen at the big tournament.

Castle's Long Run Wins For Syracuse Eleven

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 26.—Syracuse thoroughly outplayed Ohio State here yesterday, but would not have scored had it not been for the phenomenal seventy-yard run by Fullback Castle for the lone touchdown of the contest. The final score was 6 to 0 in favor of the Syracuse team.

Four different times Syracuse worked the ball to within scoring distance of Ohio's goal, but each time field goals were tried by Fogg, the visiting quarterback, only to fail. Once the ball was lost on downs on Ohio's 8-yard line.

In the first period Fogg dropped a punt for Ohio to fall upon and while man tried a field goal from the 3-yard line. The kick was poorly directed and Castle picked it up and ran seventy yards through the entire Ohio eleven for a touchdown.

Lauds "Buck" O'Brien.

Jimmy McAleer says that he counts on "Buck" O'Brien to put the Red Sox in the race in 1912. "He has the youth, strength, and ambition needed in a winning twirler," says McAleer, "and I shall be very much surprised if he fails to make good from the jump."

Mercer Looks Best.

Captain Mercer, Penn's kicking fullback, looks like the best of the present season.

Wiley Is Second.

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—The American six-day cyclist, Wiley, who took a prominent part in the New York six-day race, was a competitor for honors in a cycle race a few days ago in Berlin. He managed to secure second place by half a length.

MANY ENTRIES FOR WASHINGTON C. C. CLUB 10-MILE RUN

Athletes From Baltimore Will Enter Thanksgiving Day Event.

H. E. French, secretary of the Washington Cross Country Club, reports many entries for the ten-mile run to be held Thanksgiving Day under the auspices of that club. Practically every club in Washington and most of the athletic organizations of Baltimore will be represented in the run. Much rivalry exists between long distance runners of these two cities, and every effort will be made by local clubs to roll up the best record.

The run will start from Eleventh street and Pennsylvania avenue Thanksgiving morning at 10:30 o'clock. Bill Foley, athletic instructor of the Washington high schools, is official starter. Other officials are: Referee, Mr. Hanson, Y. M. C. A.; Judges, Capt. C. E. Edwards, Dr. M. E. Harrison, and H. C. Byrd; clerk of course, H. E. French, W. C. C. C.; assistant clerk of course, William Stowell, W. C. C. C.; timer, W. P. Bowie, J. P. Stowell, and Dr. E. G. Gish.

St. Mary's Preparing For C. U. Game Here

EMMITTSBURG, Md., Nov. 26.—St. Mary's football squad have been putting in all the extra time for the past week preparing for her important game with the Catholic University to be played at Washington on Thanksgiving Day.

The season so far has not been bad, the only disappointment being the loss of the Rock Hill game, which was looked upon as an easy victory; but, as the case with other teams the past season, the easy ones turned out to be defeats. However, all attention is being given to the Catholic University game and the locals are determined to leave nothing undone to end the season with a victory.

Play Many Games.

It is expected that a dozen games will be played at Florida avenue next spring between the Nationals and other college and professional teams before the opening of the season. Georgetown will have the first date, if all plans go through, and there is a chance that the New York Giants, National League champions, will be seen in action against Griffith's team.

Tail Slugging.

National League teams did some tail slugging last year. Cincinnati whaled three Boston pitchers for twenty-three hits on June 4, and got twenty-one off three others on May 12. The Phillies pounded three Red pitchers for twenty-one hits on May 15, and the Cardinals jumped on the Rustlers for twenty-one on September 13. The high-water mark, however, is twenty-five smashes by the Giants of Cincinnati in 1910.
